Gastronomic dictionary:

*Frittata = Italian dish made from eggs, similar to an omelette or baked eggs. The word comes from Italian and means "fried."

* Croque Madame sandwich = French toast with ham, egg and béchamel sauce.

* Vilgain = these are special breakfast dishes created or inspired by this brand, often with emphasis on high content of protein and nutritional value.

* Dilmah = true Ceylon tea, fresh and hand-harvested.

* Free-range farm eggs = all our products are made exclusively with eggs from Farma Valcha, a local farm specializing in free-range hen farming. They provide us with fresh eggs straight from their own production.

*Our fries = fried in beef tallow.

*Foie gras = liver from specially raised ducks, whose diet is high in fat and corn.

*Focaccia = bread/pastry originally from Italy.

*Guanciale = Italian bacon made from pork cheeks.

*Kimchi = fermented cabbage seasoned with garlic, chili, ginger, and fish sauce.

*Ricotta = Italian fresh cheese made from whey (the leftover liquid from making other cheeses).

*Wagyu Striploin Steak = the highest-quality meat in the world, with a high degree of fat marbling and a very intense flavor. Aged for a minimum of 30 days.
